Special Fellowships
Next Generation Fellowship
The Next Generation Fellowship (NGF) Program nurtures outstanding thinkers and writers from a variety of fields who have the potential to become foreign policy leaders. The program recruits individuals whose principal mission will be frontier policy scholarship, leading to several major published articles or a book during the fellowship tenure. Each year one NGF is named the Dillon Fellow, in honor of former Council Vice Chairman Douglas Dillon.

The Intelligence Fellowship
This fellowship provides an opportunity for an outstanding person from the U.S. intelligence community to expand his or her knowledge of international relations.

Military Fellowships
Each year, the chief of staff of each military service nominates an outstanding candidate for the Military Fellowships. The fellowships enable officers to broaden their understanding of international affairs and U.S. foreign policy by spending a year in residence at the Council.

Edward R. Murrow Fellowship
The Council offers a resident fellowship for a correspondent, editor, or producer involved with international news. Named in honor of Edward R. Murrow and funded by the CBS Foundation, the fellowship offers a nine-month period for sustained study and writing.

Whitney H. Shepardson Fellowship
The Shepardson Fellowship is periodically awarded to persons with experience and recognized professional stature in public or academic affairs related to international relations. A Shepardson Fellow is expected to spend about a year affiliated with the Council, participating in Council programs while working on a book or other significant publication on a major foreign policy issue.

Cyrus Vance Fellowship in Diplomatic Studies
The Vance Fellowship is offered to a Foreign Service Officer chosen by a selection committee from candidates nominated by the U.S. Department of State. With time away from the day-to-day pressures of diplomatic life, the Vance Fellow spends about a year affiliated with the Council.

Lectureships
The John B. Hurford Memorial Lecture
The John B. Hurford Memorial Lecture was inaugurated in 2002 in memory of John B. Hurford, a devoted member of the Council on Foreign Relations. This lecture is funded by the Hurford Foundation.

The Russell C. Leffingwell Lecture
The Leffingwell Lecture, inaugurated in 1969, was named for a charter member of the Council who served as its president from 1944 to 1946 and as its chairman from 1946 to 1953. This lecture is given by a distinguished foreign official who is invited to address Council members on a topic of major international significance. The lectures are made possible through the generosity of the Leffingwell family and the Morgan Guaranty Trust Company.

The David A. Morse Lecture
The David A. Morse Lecture was inaugurated in 1994 and supports an annual meeting and dinner with a distinguished speaker. It honors the memory of David A. Morse, an active Council member for nearly 30 years, a lawyer, a public servant, and an internationalist. The lecture program is funded by gifts from Council members and friends of the Morse family.

The David Rockefeller Lecture
The David Rockefeller Lecture was endowed by the Rockefeller Foundation in 1985 for an annual African lecturer from either the governmental or nongovernmental sector.

The Elihu Root Lecture
The Elihu Root Lecture was inaugurated in 1958 to honor a founder of the Council on Foreign Relations who served as its honorary president from 1921 to 1937. The Council invites a distinguished American to reflect on his or her professional experience and how it applies to contemporary American foreign policymaking.

The Russia and Russian-American Relations Lecture
This annual lecture was endowed this year by the Alfa Bank to help establish a more secure footing for Russian-American relations.

The Bernard L. Schwartz Lecture on Business and Foreign Policy
This lecture series was established in fall 2002 and is funded by Bernard L. Schwartz. The series focuses on two areas: the evolution of the relationship between business and government in the making of foreign policy, and ways for government to make better use of business in solving foreign policy problems and for business to become more engaged in the making of foreign policy.

The Sorensen Distinguished Lecture on the United Nations
The Sorensen Distinguished Lecture on the United Nations was established in 1996 by Theodore C. Sorensen to honor his wife, Gillian Martin Sorensen, and to commemorate her years of service to the United Nations. The Sorensen lecture is given by speakers intimately involved with the workings and issues of the United Nations.

The John Train Lecture
The John Train Lecture and dinner was established in 1997. Funded by Council member John Train, the series focuses on new issues in military affairs and the future of the U.S. military.

The Paul C. Warnke Lecture
The annual Paul C. Warnke Lecture, endowed by a number of family, friends, and Council members, was inaugurated this year and commemorates his legacy of courageous service to the nation and international peace.
